The Daily Courant.

Friday, May 16. 1707.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated May 20.

Rome, April 30.

SUnday laſt being Eaſterday, the Pope held a Chappel in the Vatican, where he himſelf celebrated Maſs, pronounc'd a Homily, and afterwards gave his Benediction to the People according to Cuſtom. The Wedneſday, Thurſday, and Friday following he bleſs'd Agnus Dei's, and ſent ſome in a Baſon as a Preſent to the Queen Dowager of Poland, by Don Annibal Albani his Nephew. The Cardinals del Giudice and de la Tremouille have frequent Conferences with the Duke d'Uzeda Ambaſſador of Spain, who is at Fraſcati. Soldiers liſted into the Emperour's Service, are daily filing towards Naples. An Expreſs is come from Ferrara to give this Court Advice of the Motions of the Imperialiſts, who have ſent down the Panaro to the Po a good Number of Barks laden with Ammunition and Cannon: Which has given Umbrage to the Vice Legate of Ferrara, and oblig'd him to ſuſpend the Reform of the Troops of his Garriſon, till further Order from Court.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 20.

Modena, April 26. Men are kept at Work Day and Night in repairing the Fortifications of our Caſtle: Our Duke has augmented his Guards with a Company of Cadets, and given out Commiſſions for raiſing 26 Companies of Foot and 10 Troops of Horſe. He has choſen 150 young Gentlemen to meet the Princeſs of Wolfembuttel on her Arrival in this Country in her Way to Spain. The Germans have withdrawn all their Garriſons out of the Places belonging to our Duke.

Mantua, April 27. The Imperialiſts have demanded of this City 40000 Piſtoles Contribution. To raiſe it our Regency have laid a heavy Poll Tax on our Inhabitants, which occaſions great Murmuring; but our Garriſon being numerous, they will find themſelves oblig'd to pay it. 'Tis talk'd our Burghers will be diſarm'd.

Venice, April 30. The Departure of the Duke of Mantua for France is put off to the Month of Auguſt. We have Letters from Conſtantinople of the 23d of March, which ſay that the Envoys of Prince Ragotski at that Court have increas'd their Retinue, and that the Turkiſh Miniſtry ſeem to have a greater Reſpect for them than formerly; which makes it ſuſpected the Grand Signior does underhand aſſiſt their Maſter.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 20.

Warſaw, May 4. The Archbiſhop Primate has ſent Univerſalia to all the Palatinates of the Kingdom, appointing a general Diet to be open'd at Lublin the 23d of this Month; to conſult of electing a new King, and of the Means for reeſtabliſhing Union and Tranquility in the Republick. The Muſcovite General Rhenne is expected here daily, in his Way to Zolkiew, where he is to aſſiſt at a great Council of War which the Czar of Muſcovy is to hold there about the Operations of the approaching Campaign. A Muſcovite Commiſſary is arriv'd here, and has demanded 2 pound weight of Meal for every Chimney of this City weekly, during 6 Months, for ſubſiſting the Muſcovite Forces that are drawing towards this Part of the Country: He has impos'd a Tax of 10 Crowns per Chimney on all the Adherents to King Staniſlaus or the Swedes that live in this City. The Muſcovites are erecting a large Magazine of Proviſions at Sendomir. The Archbiſhop Primate has agen beſought the Czar to ſet the Archbiſhop of Lemberg at Liberty; but his Czariſh Majeſty has excus'd himſelf from doing it; yet he has given Leave to the Canons of Lemberg to make their Prelate a Viſit.

From the Leid. and Amſt. Gaz. dated May 20.

Vienna, May 7. The Court is at preſent at Laxembourg, but will return hither before the 16th Inſtant, on which Day the Princeſs of Wolfembuttel is expected here: 'Tis not deſign'd to give that Princeſs a publick Reception: Several noble Apartments in the Imperial Palace are fitted up for her and her Retinue. The Troops that are to act againſt the Malecontents of Hungary, have begun to move out of their Quarters to draw to their general Rendezvous within 4 Leagues of Laxembourg; and 'tis ſaid that when they are all drawn together, the Emperour himſelf will go and ſee a Review taken of them by Count Guido Staremberg. The Malecontents work hard upon ſome additional Fortifications to Newheuſel. The Emperour has declar'd he will not conſent that any Foreign Potentate ſhall be Guarantee of the Accomodation to be made with the Hungarians, nor allow the Tranſilvanians to elect their own Prince; but has offer'd to give any other Security the Malecontents can deſire, and to grant them their free Exerciſe of Religion as ſetled by the laſt Diet held in Hungary. This Declaration being very ſhort of the Demands made by the Malecontents, there is little Likelihood the Negociation of Peace with them will be renew'd with Succeſs. However, M. Hamel Bruyninx Envoy of the States General at this Court, wrote a Letter the 2d of this Month to Prince Ragotski and the other chief Leaders of the Malecontents, to exhort them to deſiſt from ſome of the Preliminaries they have propos'd, to return a moderate Anſwer to the Emperour's Offers, and to ſend him a Paſſport unlimited as to Time, that when a favourable Occaſion may preſent for ſetting forward the deſir'd Accomodation, he may go into Hungary and employ his beſt Offices to ſo good an End. 'Tis rumour'd that the Imperial Garriſon of Hermanſtad in Tranſilvania have revolted, and deliver'd up that Place to Prince Ragotski. 'Tis not known yet which Way General Staremberg will bend his March

March when he has form'd his Army; some say he will lay Siege to Newheusel; others that he will move towards Onod, to hinder the Assembling of the general Diet which the Malecontents have appointed to be open'd there the 1st of next Month.

Long before any such thing as a Venetian Strop was ever hatcht or thought on, were often publish'd the true Original Strops for setting Razors, Pen-knives and Lancets to a most exquisite fine Edge, and polishing them to an extraordinary Brightness; and had not these been known to answer the just Character given them through the whole Nation, the Venetian Author had never Aped 'em under a Sham Title, and had the Impudence to impose that Name upon those he knows to be the true ones first publish'd in England; therefore beware of those and other Counterfeits, the True ones being only Sold at John's Coffee-house in Sweething's Alley near the Royal Exchange, at 1 s. each, with directions fix'd to 'em, as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette.
